

To Whom It May Concern,

My friend gave me your information as she is very happy with the results she got from your treatment.

My son is going into year 5. We relocated from South-Africa about 18 months ago and I would like to bring him for a language assessment. He was in an Afrikaans school and thus missed the phonics and basic English language sounds. He struggles with spelling as well as reading with comprehension.

Kind Regards